

Agenda

Raleigh Historic Development Commission Community Conversation
Design Guidelines for Raleigh Historic Districts: Additions and New Construction
Monday, October 20, 2014, 6:00 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.
Marbles Kids Museum, Raleigh

5:30 Registration

6:00 Convene

- Welcome Back - Kiernan McGorty, Raleigh Historic Development Commission
- Meeting Overview by Andy Sachs, facilitator.

6:20 Presentation by Jo Leimenstoll, Professor and Historic Preservation Coordinator, Department of Interior Architecture, UNC-Greensboro.

- What I heard from the first forum.
- What I recommend.
- Q&A, as time allows.

7:05 Small Group Discussion #1: Feedback on the Recommendations to the HDC

- Instructions to the small groups by the facilitator.
- Focal points for Discussion #1:
 - Which of the recommendations are most important to you, and why? Identify the group's top three.
 - What would your table want the HDC to consider as it reviews the recommendations? Identify the group's top three.

7:50 Small Group Discussion #2: Commission Composition and Structure.

20 minutes

- Briefing on this topic by Martha Lauer
 - What we heard from you at first forum on this issue
 - What staff recommends to HDC
- Focal point for Discussion #2: What would your table want the HDC to consider as it reviews the recommendations? Top three points.

8:10 Small Group Discussion #3: Informing New Residents 20 minutes

- Briefing on this topic by Tania Tully
 - What we heard from you at first forum on this issue
 - What staff recommends to HDC

- Focal points for Discussion #3: What would your table want the HDC to consider as it reviews the recommendations? Top three points.

8:30 Wrap Up

- City staff overviews the process from this point forward.
- Distribution of hard copies of Dr. Leimenstoll's recommendations.
- Thank you!

8:45 Facilitator adjourns the forum.

Attendees can browse around the table easels in the room to read the notes from the small groups for about 20 minutes.