WHEREAS, the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina authorized the creation of the Raleigh Historic Development Commission for the City of Raleigh and otherwise provided for the preservation of certain historic sites and buildings by the passage of Part 3C, Chapter 160A, Article 19 of the North Carolina General Statutes; and

WHEREAS, the Raleigh Historic Development Commission has made an investigation and recommended the following property be designated a historic landmark; and

WHEREAS, the North Carolina Department of Cultural Resources has made an analysis and recommendation that the following property be designated a historic landmark; and

WHEREAS, on the 5th day of April, 2016, a joint public hearing was held in the Council Chamber of the Avery C. Upchurch Municipal Complex, Raleigh, before the City Council of the City of Raleigh and the Raleigh Historic Development Commission to determine whether the hereinafter described property should be designated a historic landmark; and

WHEREAS, all requirements of Part 3C, Chapter 160A, Article 19 of the North Carolina General Statutes, preceding the adoption of this ordinance, have been complied with.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA THAT:

Section 1. The property designated as Anna Riddick House, in the planning jurisdiction of the City of Raleigh, North Carolina, be and is declared a Raleigh Historic Landmark. Said property being more particularly described as follows:

The property located at 1028 Cowper Drive, Raleigh, NC, owned by Jeffrey Brennon Childers, that property described in deed book 013607, page 01555 recorded in Wake County Registry, comprising approximately .25 acres.

A detailed architectural description and history is found in the 2015 Raleigh Historic Designation application and report and is hereby referenced.

Section 2. Those elements of the property that are integral to its historical, prehistorical, architectural, archaeological and/or cultural significance or any combination thereof are as follows:

Built in 1952 with a ca. 1960 addition, the Anna Riddick House has special architectural significance as an intact and distinctive mid-twentieth-century Georgian Revival-style residence designed for a single woman. The residential complex, facing generally west to Cowper Drive, consists of three buildings: the main house and front walled terrace (1952) with attached guest house (ca. 1960); a carport (ca. 1980, noncontributing); and a storage shed (ca. 1980, noncontributing). The house has a town house plan with a narrow footprint rather than the wide country house form commonly utilized in the neighborhood. This design represents an unusual house type for Raleigh—a small town house built for a single person. It is constructed of bricks salvaged from the Oddfellows orphanage in Goldsboro. The house also has special historic significance for its association with Miss Anna Riddick, one of Raleigh's earliest interior decorators, whose career spanned forty years from the 1920s to the 1960s.

A detailed architectural description and history is found in the 2015 Raleigh Historic Designation application and report and is hereby referenced.

Section 3. No portion of the exterior features of any building, site, structure, or object (including windows, doors, walls, fences, light fixtures, signs, steps, pavement, paths, or any other appurtenant features), trees, nor above ground utility structure located on the hereinbefore described property that is designated in this ordinance may be altered, restored, moved, remodeled, or reconstructed so that a change in design, material or outer appearance occurs unless and until a certificate of appropriateness is obtained from the Raleigh Historic Development Commission or its successors; provided however that the Raleigh Planning Director or designee may approve certificates of appropriateness for minor works as listed in the Bylaws and Rules of Procedure of the Raleigh Historic Development Commission.
